TO MEASURE WATER USED IN VALLEY

Water Users Meet with the Government Representatives at Cruces.

Las Cruces, N. M., Jan. 24.—A meeting of the commissioners of the three states, Las Cruces, Mesilla and Dona Ana, was held in this city on Saturday. Frederick I. Bixby, of the department of agriculture, in the interest of irrigation investigation, with offices at the A. & M. college, was present, as was also J. B. Stoneking, of the college, for the purpose of discussing with the commissioners terms of a contract with the college and the department for the establishing of gages in the several ditches and the installation of a registering device at the intake of the ditches from the government canal for the purpose of keeping a correct account of water used and determine the

We are so positive that our remedy will permanently relieve constipation, no matter how chronic it may be, that we offer to furnish the medicine at our expense should it fail to produce satisfactory results.

It is worse than useless to attempt to cure constipation with cathartic drugs. Laxatives or cathartics do much harm. They cause a reaction, irritate and weaken the bowels and tend to make constipation more chronic. Besides, their use becomes a habit that is dangerous.

Constipation is caused by a weakness of the nerves and muscles of the large intestine or descending colon. To expect permanent relief you must therefore tone up and strengthen these organs and restore them to healthier activity.

The discovery of the active principle of our remedy involved the labor of the world's greatest research chemists. As an active agent it possesses the valuable qualities of the best known intestinal tonics as well as being particularly pleasant and prompt in its results.

We want you to try Rexall Orderlies on our recommendation. They are exceedingly pleasant to take, being eaten like candy, and are ideal for children, delicate persons and old folks, as well as for the robust. They act directly on the nerves and muscles of the bowels. They apparently have a neutral action on other associate organs or glands. They do not purge, cause excessive looseness, nor create any inconvenience whatever. They may be taken at any time, day or night. They will positively relieve chronic or habitual constipation. If not of surgical variety, and the myriads of associate or dependent chronic ailments, if taken with regularity for a reasonable length of time. They come in two sizes of packages, 12 tablets, 10 cents; 36 tablets, 25 cents. Sold in El Paso only at out stores.—The Rexall Stores. People's Drug Store and Kelly & Pollard.

LAS CRUCES PEOPLE ENTHUSIASTIC OVER HERALD'S WORK FOR VALLEY

Las Cruces, N. M., Jan. 24.—The efforts of The Herald to boost the Mesilla Valley and Las Cruces, are appreciated by the people in this section. The big excursion from El Paso to Las Cruces yesterday worked up through the columns of The Herald, was an example of the benefits that paper is giving to the people up here. Other excursions are expected to follow. The people here are enthusiastic over The Herald.

I. D. Todd, of Las Cruces, says: "I think The Herald is the paper for this country. It has done more to boost the Mesilla Valley than any other paper and is the best newspaper this side of Denver."

"I am a subscriber to The Herald and have been for some time; I think it certainly is a booster for Las Cruces and the Mesilla valley," said J. E. McCullom.

"The Herald has done first rate for the Mesilla valley and is boosting it all the time," said T. S. Hunt.

amount of water that goes to waste. By this method it is hoped to lessen the cost to the water users considerably.

Mr. Bixby was instructed to order the registering device and N. C. Frenger to draw up a contract to be signed by all the ditches and the college.

Messrs. Bixby and Stoneking will have the supervision of the work of installation and reading of the gages during the season.

Acid Dyspepsia

Nervous People Are Frequent Sufferers From Too Much Hydrochloric Acid in the Stomach.

A Trial Package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets Sent Free.

"Sour stomach," or acid dyspepsia is a form of indigestion which entirely too much hydrochloric acid is secreted by the stomach. A sour taste in the mouth is the most common symptom of acid dyspepsia; and the saliva, which is normally alkaline, is found, when tested, to be changed to acid, or just the opposite of what it should be, and is a state of the secretion which causes rapid and extensive destruction of the teeth.

Everything eaten turns more or less sour in the stomach, but sweets and acid fruits are far worse in this respect than other foods. If the eructation of liquids from the stomach occurs, they have such an extremely sour taste as to set the teeth on edge. Hydrochloric acid is an important constituent in the gastric juice, but when too much of it is secreted, it does positive harm to the mucous lining of the stomach; and when acid dyspepsia is long continued it often sets up chronic gastritis, gastric ulcer, and other serious diseases. The premature loss of all the teeth has been caused by acid saliva, which was dependent upon the excessively acid condition of the stomach.

STUART'S DYSPEPSIA TABLETS, besides furnishing pure, aseptic pepsin to the stomach to dilute the excess of hydrochloric acid, and to digest proteins and albuminous foods very thoroughly, also contain bismuth subnitrate and calcium carbonate, which are antagonistic to the acid, and therefore neutralize the effect of excessive amount of acid in the stomach, and the continued use of these tablets will change the perverted condition of the secretions to a normal state.

If you are suffering from "hyperchlorhydria," as physicians term it, or in other words, acid dyspepsia, and experience a sour taste in the mouth, with acid eructations or heartburn, begin at once the use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, using one or two after each meal, or as may be required, and the same quantity at retiring time, for if this trouble is allowed to run on, it may cause serious organic changes in the stomach. There are cases on record where the lining of the stomach has been completely eaten away through perverted action of the secretions.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets have been tried in all forms of indigestion and dyspepsia, with unflinching success, so that no matter which form you may be suffering from, the quickest way to bring about a cure is through the use of these powerful stomach tablets.

Secure from your druggist a fifty cent box, and get cured of acid dyspepsia, or whatever form of indigestion you may be suffering. Also send us your name and address for free sample. Address F. A. Stuart Company, 150 Stuart Building, Marshall, Mich.

SOME HISTORY OF THE TERRITORIES

Gen. Keifer Talks of the Cession of Territory by Mexico.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 24.—Representative Keifer, Republican, of Ohio, speaking of statehood for New Mexico and Arizona, said:

"I favored the bill, although it creates two new states out of territory that is not very thickly populated. The territory that will comprise these two states has waited for about 62 years for admission, after they were expected to be brought into statehood. Senator Thomas Hart Benton says that the war with Mexico was to acquire this territory to make into slave states at once. He says that those who got up that war did not want to have war only large enough for a treaty of peace to acquire territories from poor Mexicans, but not large enough to make aspirants for the presidency of the United States. If this statement was true, there was great disappointment. No part of any territory acquired from Mexico at the end of that war ever became slave, and Gen. Zachary Taylor was elected president in 1848, and Franklin Pierce in 1852, the latter defeating Gen. Winfield Scott the same year. Scott and Taylor were distinguished commanders in the Mexican war.

On Feb. 2, 1848, the treaty of Guadalupe-Hidalgo was concluded. By that treaty the United States acquired up to California and New Mexico territories. The latter then included substantially all the present territory of Arizona. Then it was expected that immediately New Mexico would be admitted as a state in the union, where slavery would exist.

The representative of the United States at that treaty, N. B. Forrest, in reporting what took place at the treaty, stated to the secretary of state in a letter that the commissioners on the part of Mexico asked that there should be a proviso in the treaty that the territory ceded to the United States should be forever free, alleging as a reason that it was dedicated to freedom by the Mexican authority. He said he responded ed to that in scorn by saying to the Mexican commissioners that rather than put that provision in the treaty he would decline to take any territory whatever; that he would not agree to it if the territory of Upper California and New Mexico were covered over a foot thick in solid gold; that it was to be dedicated to slavery.

By the treaty of Guadalupe-Hidalgo we acquired these territories, paying $15,000,000 therefor, in addition to the cost of the war, and by the Gadsden purchase, paying $10,000,000 more, we acquired Dec. 20, 1853, further territory from Mexico. The new states are made up mainly of the original territory of New Mexico, but each will include some part of the Gadsden purchase.

Now, 62 years have elapsed, and we have come to dedicate it under the stars and stripes of this country, under new constitutional conditions, to eternal liberty. Not one foot of the territories acquired from Mexico by treaty ever became slave. There is but one invidious thing in this bill, as I read it, and I do not know which way to apply it. That is, the provision in section 3, applying to New Mexico, and likewise section 20, applicable to Arizona, that prohibits intoxicating liquors being taken into Indian reservations or introduced there in any manner. If this provision is not unjust to the Indians, why not make it applicable to the states to be created? Why not treat Indians and the citizens alike?
